

LIVING HISTORIES,
LASTING JOURNEYS

Sharing the heritage of
St Leonard's Flamstead

The Colours of St Leonard's Church

Early Years Foundation Stage

Learning Objectives

- Why people painted their churches.
- The paintings in St Leonard's Church.

Why do people want to paint?

Above: A cave painting from Lascaux, France. Creative Commons.

Banksy, Girl and Heart Balloon. Southbank, London. Creative Commons.

A Colourful History

St Leonard's
Church today

What colours can you see?

Paintings in Medieval Churches

Wall paintings in St Peter and St Paul's Church, Pickering. Photo © Christine Matthews (cc-by-sa/2.0)

Who Created the Paintings?

Shared Stories

St Leonard's painting of the Day of Judgement.

LIVING HISTORIES
Lasting Journeys
Sharing the Heritage of
St. Leonards, Plumstead

HERITAGE
FUND

© Team ER

Paintings in other Churches

The Doom wall painting, St Thomas's Church, Salisbury..

The Story of a Painter

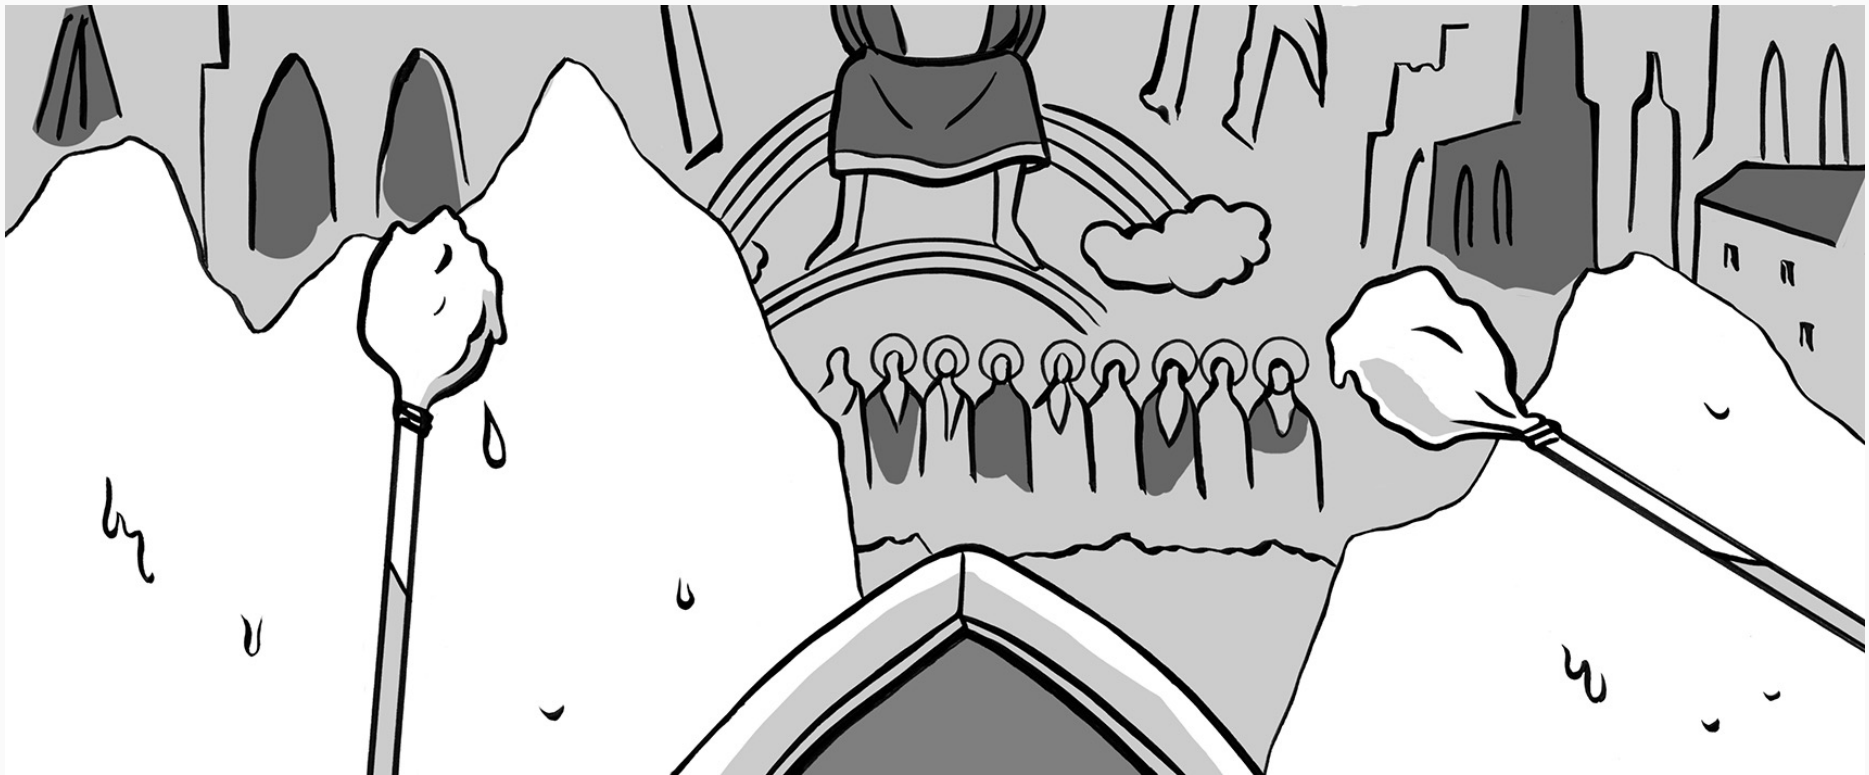

- Let's listen to the story of a painter here in St Leonard's.

(Brother Gregory – Painter)

Hiding the Paintings

How were the paints made long ago?

Artists' Old Paints

Your turn!

- Can you make a picture that gives a message?
- Can you make your own colour?

Left: Ultramarine blue pigment.

Middle: A pestle and mortar for grinding. Right: Cadmium orange pigment.

